Javier Gonzalez

Professional Liability Consultant & Risk Management Advisor

Professional liability insurance professional, specializing in Errors and Omissions, Directors and Officers, EPLI, Privacy/Network Security and Fiduciary insurance for private and public corporations nationwide.

Javier has worked for Axis Insurance Services, LLC since early 2005. As Executive Vice President of Sales, he is responsible for the overall direction and supervision of the company's sales force.

Javier has highly-developed instincts which help him anticipate the needs of his clients and build custom professional liability solutions. His consultative approach has helped him establish a deep trust with his clientele. They allow him to dive head-on into their business operations, assess the potential risks and make appropriate changes to their insurance policies so they are well-protected.

Prior to joining the company, Javier worked for a financial services firm in Northern New Jersey and spent time with the administration of Private Placements/IPO filings and related materials to be filed with the SEC.

About Axis Insurance Services, LLC

Building innovative insurance solutions for professional service companies and their employees.

Axis Insurance Services, LLC is a nationally recognized leader in the professional liability and executive liability market. Formed in 1999, we focus on developing innovative risk management solutions for today's evolving businesses. Our strong industry partnerships and years of expertise in E&O, D&O, EPLI and Privacy/Network Security, allow us to create the high-quality custom coverage our clients' need.

The company launched PLRisk Advisors, Inc. in 2012. Today, the two firms provide retail and wholesale coverage solutions for errors and omissions, directors and officers, fiduciary, crime and privacy risks.

We believe our diverse product options and outstanding customer service helps us earn our clients' trust and loyal. What sets us apart is our understanding of the market and our ability to adapt our products to meet our clients' objectives. Professional liability policies often become a commodity – at Axis, we only build custom coverage solutions that work for our customers.
